Derby Collection

A BEAUTIFUL WAY TO HAVE FUN

To celebrate the return of Milano Design Week, IMPATIA is excited to share with all the design and luxury enthusiasts a new fundamental step in its innovation of classic game tables: the new Derby Collection, dedicated to the beloved game of table football.

Leading the way to the next chapter for IMPATIA will be Derby di Milano, a stunning design piece able to bring together innovation and craftsmanship with an unmistakable style, immediately recognizable to the Italian brands DNA.

The first visionary football table from the Derby Collection dedicates itself to Italy, especially to the city of Milano where the game of football holds great prominence, presenting a modern reinterpretation made with meticulous care through the highest exponents of Italian craftsmanship. A piece that rightfully earns its space among other precious IMPATIA collections: Filotto, dedicated to the game of billiards, Lungolinea, which celebrates ping pong, Unootto, and Tuttuno, dedicated to card games and poker lovers.

As the name suggests, Derby represents a new, exciting challenge for IMPATIA. Conceptually born amid worldly social and technological transformations, it aims to synthesize two irreconcilable concepts: luxury design and prevalence. The design is a result of the company's creative team led by IMPATIA's founder Gregg Brodarick who is also an architect active in various international projects, and designer Lucia Guazzi.

who can enhance new aspects of the game with a fresh and contemporary vision. Produced exclusively in Italy by selected artisans, Derby di Milano is characterized by a crystalline glass playing field, supported by a refined solid wood structure. Modern design touches such as geometric handles and sublime metal details allow Derby to elevate the game of table football to new heights, achieving an elegant balance between contemporaneity and the renowned excellence of Italian craftsmanship.

Derby di Milano is currently available in three exclusive wood versions: natural, brown, and smoked gray, with chromed finished metal rods that illuminate twenty-two players in anodized aluminum. Like any other IMPATIA game table, the production of every single piece can be tailor-made to each order received.

The first deliveries are to begin in January 2022.

As we continue to push the boundaries of luxury design within the game table industry, IMPATIA unveils a brand-new accessory collection made exclusively from precious leathers. Designed by the IMPATIA R&D team, each bespoke game set is crafted in Italy by none other than talented master leatherworkers.

Curated from the highest quality of precious leather, this luxury game set collection showcases vivid colors complemented by rich natural textures. With a refined minimalistic design, the natural elegance of the exotic skin is matched with chrome metal and glass detailing. A light play, the reflections on the shifting textures transform each item into collectible design pieces.

Custom-made to order, this series is now available in billiards, checkers, backgammon, mahjong, and poker. Upon purchase, each precious leather is hand-selected and tailored for the client, with the option of personalizations within a 6-month lead time.

All leathers used in this collection are supplied by Louisiane – Gruppo Hcp and ensure secure, ethical, and respectful welfare of animals along with guaranteed unit traceability.*

Unootto Marble

Back in Black

With a continuous passion for play and desire to reinvent the classics, IMPATIA is excited to unveil an all-black edition of the Unootto Marble Poker Table.

Created for a game where focus is key, this outstanding design piece sets the mood and leaves a lasting impression. Sophisticated in design, and refined in its form, the Unootto poker table features a smoked glass exterior frame, tied in together with a black marble trim and Alcantara playing field. The table itself is supported by Black nickel legs.

Made exclusively in Italy, the newly launched black edition, highlights a tailor-made experience that brings together a luxurious range of materiality and premium craftsmanship.

Filotto Wood

Contemporary design with a distinct presence

As we continue to push the boundaries of the luxury game table industry, IMPATIA is excited to share with you the launch of the Filotto Wood. A tribute to the classic game of billiards, this outstanding design piece showcases a harmonized use of materiality inspired by the warm touch of wood.

Officially available for ordering now, this edition is a renewed interpretation of the Filotto Classic designed by Adriano Design for IMPATIA. The presented new edition embodies a natural elegance with varied textures and natural hues; Specifically featuring prominent Oak wood legs in addition to the table's distinctive exterior glass top frame. Diverse in Materiality, this contemporary pool table is handcrafted by artisans and exclusively made to order 100% in Italy. Available in three different Oak wood finishes along with a variety of other customizations, this exceptional game table is a match for even the most sophisticated taste.

While refined within its design and aesthetic, the Filotto Wood equally ensures a premium quality billiard experience. The 8ft pro table has an Italian slate base, which allows for perfect leveling and a smooth playing surface, verified in comparison to any professional table. An attentive feature that makes this piece especially remarkable.

With an ode to the use of natural materiality, the Filotto Wood carries a bold character that is very in tune and uniformly sophisticated.
